U.S. Air Force to Sponsor Canal Fest Bike Cruise

For the first time, the United States Air Force is on board to present the fourth Canal Fest Bike Cruise scheduled for Friday, July 24th 6:00pm – 10:00pm on Webster Street.

All bikes are welcome and the first 700 to arrive with a non-perishable food item receive a commemorative event lapel pin. Limit one pin per person.

Food items collected will then be split between the Tonawanda Salvation Army and the NT Inter-Church Food Pantries. Live music by Rip and the Bandogs will be on the Webster Street stage with Beer Tent by Sweeney Hose Co. #7.

New for the Cruise this year are specially designated areas for Builders and Custom Bikes and a Vendor Marketplace.

All bikes will be eligible for awards sponsored by Buffalo Choppers in five different categories of; Best Metric, Best Domestic, Best Custom, Best Paint and Canal Fest Directors Choice.
